Ages & Stages

Ages & Stages is a fun, interactive, one on one activity to help parents determine if their child's development is age appropriate. Available for parents & children, ages 4 months to 5 years old. (English & Spanish) Call for an Appointment

Drop In-Childcare*

Parents can relax or get work done in Cope Family Center's comfortable community room. Children are cared for, in our childcare room, by our on staff childcare provider. Parents must stay on site. Open to the community.

TEMPORARILY UNAVAILABLE

Children in the Middle

A program, developed by the Center for Divorce Education, that helps children and their parents deal with the children's reactions to divorce. It is designed to teach parents the skills needed to avoid putting children in the middle of their conflicts.

Ongoing -By Appointment Marla Wiggin-facilitator

Kinship & Coffee

Are you raising your grandchild, younger siblings, nieces/nephews or another relative's child? Join our ongoing support group that provides an opportunity to learn where to find help and share challenges, needs, resources and experiences with others in similar situations.
